

NATION MOURNS HARRISON'S DEATH

Preparations for the Funeral Sunday Afternoon, Are Complete.

BIG MILITARY DISPLAY

Body Will Lie in State Tomorrow, Surrounded by a Military Guard.

MANY NOTABLES TO ATTEND

Indianapolis, March 15.—Cold, disagreeable weather is promised for Harrison's burial. Snow fell all night and the mercury this morning has fallen many degrees. Preparations for the lying in state of the general's body and the funeral Sunday were completed this morning.

The courts have adjourned and the business houses will close tomorrow afternoon. In every public school the first half hour was taken by the teachers this morning to review Harrison's life and work.

Decorations on Line of March The Seventieth Indiana Regiment Volunteer Association, of which Harrison was president, met this morning to take action on his death. The committee on decorations asks that all the houses on the line of march over which the entire militia of the state will escort the body from the residence to statehouse will be decorated. McKinley will arrive Sunday morning, but it is not yet settled whose guest he will be.

The Columbia club, the leading republican organization, meets tonight when eulogies will be delivered by Lew Wallace and others. All of the members of Harrison's cabinet are expected for the funeral except Proctor, who is in Cuba.

The Funeral Arrangements.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 15.—The funeral of General Benjamin Harrison in this city Sunday will undoubtedly be the most notable in the history of Indianapolis. President McKinley and the members of his cabinet, justices of the United States supreme court, United States senators and other men prominent in public life will be here.

Besides these, men who were members of General Harrison's cabinet during his presidential administration will attend.

National Guard Ordered Out.

The entire Indiana national guard has been ordered out as an escort of honor for the distinguished dead on Saturday, when the body will be taken to the capitol to lie in state. General Harrison's old regiment the 70th Indiana, will be the guard of honor immediately escorting the body, and various posts of the Grand Army of the state will also appear in the procession.

It was decided this morning that a military display would be eminently proper on Saturday, it being the universal expression that on Sunday pomp would have been contrary to the general's wishes.

Simple Services on Sunday.

On Sunday afternoon, however, the funeral at the first Presbyterian church at two o'clock will be a quiet affair, but police lines will be maintained, for a crush of people curious to see President McKinley is anticipated. There will be no military escort of any kind that day. The body will be taken directly to Crown Hill cemetery.

Governor Yates of Illinois telegraphed today that he would be there, attended by his staff. Governor Nash of Ohio with his staff will attend the funeral. Gov. Durbin yesterday afternoon sent a notice of General Harrison's death to the governors of many of the states and it is the belief that the majority of them will be here.

Body to Lie in State.

The body will lie in state in the capitol tomorrow from eleven o'clock in the morning until ten o'clock at night. All arrangements have been completed, and the body will be taken from the home on Saturday morning, accompanied by a military escort composed of the national guard and the Grand Army posts.

Takes Death Mask of Face. Late this afternoon John H. Mahoney, the sculptor of this city, took a plaster cast of General Harrison's face.

A telegram was received during the day from Carter B. Harrison, another brother of the dead statesman, who lives at Murfreesboro, Tenn., announcing that he will arrive in the city today. All of the other near relatives are now present.

The casket in which the body of ex-President Harrison will be buried is of red cedar and is provided with a copper lining, which makes the compartment absolutely air tight. Over the copper is a silk lining on which the body will rest. The only ornament will be a plain oxidized plate, on which will be engraved the words: "Benjamin Harrison, 1833-1901." The casket will weigh nearly three hundred pounds.

Four black horses will be used to draw the hearse which will be draped in black. A large American flag will be thrown over the top of the funeral car.

McKinley to Go to Private House. The coming of President McKinley has aroused much interest. Word has been received indicating that he will be here on Saturday night, he having left Washington with the expectation of stopping at his home in Canton. He will probably be the guest of Senator and Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks while he is in the city.

Harrison Leaves $250,000 Estate. General Harrison's wealth is variously estimated. Public opinion rates it as high as half a million dollars. Those who are best informed about the ex-president's affairs, however, say he was worth about $250,000 or $300,000.

At the time he was elected president he was reputed to have accumulated a fortune of $125,000 from his law practice, and this has been doubled at least since that time. Of late years his practice, owing to his great reputation as a constitutional lawyer, was very lucrative. His fee in the Venezuelan boundary dispute, in which he represented the South American republic, was $100,000.

His fortune consisted largely of real estate, located in this city, and probably $100,000 of personal property. In addition to this he owned a fine summer home in the Adirondacks, where he was accustomed to spend the summer with his family. The personal property consisted of about $30,000 in stock in various corporations and an equal amount in bonds.

SHEPARD MADE A FULL CONFESSION

Chief of Police Appleby, Officer Whipple and George Moran of Beloit went to Rockford Wednesday and identified a fellow who gave his name as Levi Shepard as the third man who with Gordon and Williams tried to dispose of stolen cigars and also assaulted and attempted to rob T. D. Whitford on the night of Feb. 21.

Shepard was arrested at the instance of Detective King or the St. Paul road who has been quietly at work on the case trying to locate the man that stole the cigars.

Gordon and Williams pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting T. D. Whitford and were given three and were given three and a half years the pen by Judge Fifield.

Shepard was recognized at once by both Officer Whipple and Moran but he tried to play the injured innocence for some time. Finally however he weakened and later he came out with a full confession implicating the others in the case. Furthermore he made a sworn statement which was copied on the typewriter and signed before witnesses. Shepard will be held in Rockford and will probably go over the road for stealing cigars.

About seventy members of the short course of agriculture class of the University of Wisconsin will visit Janesville a week from Saturday and inspect the stables of Alexander Galbraith. They will be here in the morning on their way back to Madison after a visit to several of the breeding farms in this vicinity. Several medals will be competed for during this trip.

JUDA "MAN KILLER" IS BROKEN BY PROF. GLEASON AT MILWAUKEE

The Celebrated Southern Wisconsin Wild and Vicious Horse Was Completely Tamed—How the Trick Was Done Last Night.

Milwaukee, March 15.—Alexander the Great, "the man killer" from Juda was a feature on the program at the Exposition last night before 7,000 spectators, under the manipulation of Prof. Gleason, the horse trainer. It is seldom that the people of a city are given opportunity to look upon an animal that combined within its anatomy so much of the very Old Nick. It came upon the scene frothing at the mouth, with nostrils distended, and with eyes flashing. Five men had it in charge with guy ropes at his side and on his head, while the man who preceded the animal held in his hand a stout pole which ran back about twelve feet and was fastened in the animal's mouth. The object of this little "property" in the horse tamer's paraphernalia was to prevent the animal from running upon the men who had him in charge.

He Was a Beauty.

It was just ten thirty o'clock when this horse entered the arena with an air as proud as Lucifer. With all of his viciousness he was a beauty. He is a dark bay with three white feet the fourth one being the color of his body, and with a long black mane and forelock drooping over a face as white as snow. In twenty-five minutes, this animal, whom no one, not even the horse trainer could approach when it first entered the arena, was hitched to a wagon and was trotting about as gentle as a farm horse.

How the Work Was Done.

Different tactics were employed in dealing with the "gentleman from Juda." Professor Gleason's first move was to approach the animal with a revolver in his hand which he began to fire point blank in the horse's face, approaching nearer and nearer, until the muzzle of the weapon touched the horse's head.

At the beginning the animal reared and plunged about, but finally it took to the firing calmly. The next moment the hand of the horse trainer was in the horse's mouth, and then the ropes were taken away and a bridle substituted. This was supplemented with a surcingle, and a rope was attached to the front feet of the animal.

At first it kept its hind feet punching holes in the atmosphere in all directions, but was at last thrown down. Then the trainer quick as a flash sprang upon the horse rolled over him, played with those great strong teeth, and petted him and it was all up with the "Man Killer from Juda." He had rattled tin pans over his flanks while in his jumping moods, but when he arose, it was the colored attendants that were doing the rattling with a long stick.

"That horse is now perfectly safe," said Professor Gleason. "Bring on the harness."

Wears His First Harness.

The harness was brought, and the great stallion which had held the farmers of Juda in awe, was walking and trotting around the arena, as if he had been engaged in that sort of business all of his life, and yet it was said that this was the first time that he had ever had a harness on his back.

WHITEHEAD WILL ATTEND FUNERAL

Janesville Man on the Committee Appointed by Gov. La Follette to Attend Harrison Burial.

Madison, Wis., March 15.—Governor La Follette yesterday afternoon issued the following proclamation on the death of President Harrison, after eulogizing the character of the dead statesman he spoke as follows:

"Now, therefore, in respect to this eminent and worthy life, in behalf of the people of Wisconsin, I do hereby appoint the following named citizens of the state as a committee to attend the funeral services: Ex-Governors William D. Hoard, George W. Peck, W. H. Upham and Edward Scofield; Chief Justice John B. Cassoday, Gen. F. C. Winkler, Hon. I. Stephenson, Lieutenant Gov. Jesse Stone, Hon. James H. Stout, Hon. John M. Whitehead, Hon. George H. Ray, Hon. A. R. Hall, Hon. Philo Orton.

"I also direct, in token of respect, that the national flag be displayed at half mast on the capitol building, at Madison, until sundown on the day of the burial, and that the building be draped with emblems of mourning for thirty days."

HAS TERMINATED IN THE USUAL FARCE

Buffet Derouled Duel Interrupted by the Swiss Police at Instigation of the Second.

Gerne, March 15.—The Buffet-Derouled duel has terminated in the usual farce. The desire of the principals for bloodletting, having abated the seconds agreed to notify the Swiss police and their appearance forbade a tragedy. The principals declared their honor satisfied and the seconds pronounced the incident closed.

FRED GILBERT MAKES A CLEAN SCORE

Kills One Hundred Straight and Wins the Association Championship at New York.

During the trap shooting in connection with the sportsman's show in New York city yesterday Fred Gilbert of Spirit Lake, Iowa, who has many friends in this city won the association championship by making 100 kills out of a possible 100. He was closely followed by Crosby, 99; Banks, 99; Watson, 98; Fanning, 98; Griffith, 98 and Parmelee 98. He was in hot company and had to go some to beat the bunch.

Robert Barnes, who will be remembered as the one armed, blind cornetist, at the State School for the Blind, is just completing a two years' course at the School of Oratory in Chicago. He has made rapid advancement, and has before him a bright future as an elocutionist and cornetist.

WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

Little Town of Cloverport, Ky., Ravaged by Flames. Cloverport, Ky., March 15.—The fire which broke out here, caused by the bursting of a natural gas pipe, destroyed property worth half a million dollars. The greater part of the little town was wiped out, and over a thousand persons, about one-half the population, are homeless, and up to the time a special relief train from Louisville reached here, were in great distress.

The heaviest loser is the American Tobacco company, which lost two large stemmeries and 1,000,000 pounds of tobacco. Other large structures destroyed were the Lucille Memorial Methodist church, and the only hotels in the town, the Breckinridge Inn and the Cloverport hotel. The losses on these have not yet been computed, the owners and occupants devoting themselves entirely to fighting the flames in other parts of the little town and doing what they could to succor the women and children huddled in little groups wherever shelter could be found from the biting cold of the night and early morning.

HIGH MARK SET FOR MR. CARNEGIE

He Must Give Many More Millions to Equal the Work of Mr. Peabody.

New York, March 15.—With all his princely munificence, Andrew Carnegie has not yet reached the proportionate measure of his notable predecessors in philanthropy. George Peabody, for example, gave to public uses much more than 50 per cent. of his fortune of some $13,000,000 and other men of similar wealth have since done as much. Mr. Carnegie, on the other hand, has "just begun," as he says, and his fortune—perhaps twenty times as large as Peabody's—is so tremendous that opportunities to spend any great part of it properly will give this latest and perhaps greatest philanthropist years of labor to discover.

George Peabody, who was referred to after his death as "the most liberal philanthropist of ancient or modern times," gave much less than half the amount included in Mr. Carnegie's known philanthropies. Peabody's gifts aggregated $8,500,000 and he died with a fortune of $5,000,000. The total of Carnegie's gifts to date is $16,263,252.

GENERAL DEWET IS MAKING FOR NATAL

The General Op'n on in Cape Town is That the Peace Negotiations Will Be Successful.

Pretoria, March 15.—Lord Kitchener reports that Dewet has reached Senegal, east from Brandfort. This seems to indicate that the Boer leader has no particular destination or is making for Natal. French reports that in his further operations that forty-six Boers have been killed and wounded; one hundred and forty-six taken prisoners and five thousand horses and cattle and rifles, ammunition and wagons captured. In Cape town the general opinion is that the peace negotiations will be brought to a favorable issue.

Going to Beaver Dam.

James R. Sheldon and son Harry R. Sheldon of 58 Caroline street have accepted positions with the Beaver Dam cotton mills and will leave for there in a few days to take up their work.

Mr. James Sheldon will be the foreman of the card and spinning rooms at the mills, and his son Harry will be his assistant. Both of these gentlemen have been in the employ of cotton mills for many years and are well acquainted with the duties of their new positions. Their many friends in this city wish them success in their new place.

GREAT BRITAIN HAS WOMEN TO SPARE

Chamberlain Assures British Women That Millions Could Find Happy Homes in the Colonies.

London, March 15.—"More women in our colonies!" has become the war cry of a large number of persons, official and unofficial, throughout the British empire. Mr. Chamberlain took up the slogan this afternoon, when he addressed the United British Women's Emigration association. He said:

"Here at home we have millions more women than men. They cannot look forward to becoming wives and mothers and the heads of households. They jostle one another in their struggle for existence, and their wages often fall below the level of making an honorable existence possible. We must reduce the disproportion by sending suitable women suitably protected, to places where the proportion is exactly in the opposite direction.

APPOINTS MAY 3 AS ARBOR DAY

Proclamation to That Effect by Governor La Follette Today.

FIGHT ON OSTEOPATHY

Walworth, Sheboygan and Portage Cut in the Reapportionment Bill.

TO TAKE UP THE GAME LAW

Madison, Wis., March 15.—A bill reapportioning the state into assembly districts was reported to the legislature today by the joint committee on apportionment. The districts stand as fixed a week ago, with Sheboygan, Portage and Walworth counties reduced one member each.

The senate killed the bill providing for the seizure of game cocks and dogs. Several minor bills were passed by both houses.

Adjournment was taken until Monday night, a resolution in the assembly for a Saturday session being defeated.

La Follette today issued a proclamation appointing May 3 as Arbor day.

FIGHT ON OSTEOPATHY BILL

Discussion Before the Committee Will Be Concluded Tuesday.

Madison, Wis., March 15.—The assembly committee on public health and sanitation yesterday afternoon began its wrestle with the various bills for and against the osteopaths of the state. These bills were fought out before the senate and assembly judiciary committees, and one of the bills, the one recognizing osteopathy and creating a state board of osteopathic examiners, passed the senate. The public health committee heard arguments and then adjourned the hearing till next Tuesday afternoon, when it is expected that the arguments will be ended.

In the senate and assembly today the chairman of the apportionment committees introduced bills designing the plan of apportionment for the 100 assembly districts. The bills were introduced as committee measures, with the request that they be put on the calendar. The fight in the house will take place early next week, possibly on Tuesday. Assemblyman Spratt of Sheboygan and Assemblyman Collins of Portage county will oppose the present plan.

The question of taxing equipment cupled the attention of the joint committees on assessments and collection of taxes yesterday afternoon. The question of taxing freight lines also was taken up, but nobody appeared to oppose the bill that the tax commission has drafted.

Sportsmen of the state will have their inning before the state legislature next week. On Thursday afternoon the joint committee on fish and game will take up all the bills relating to amendments to the present game laws. There are many who favor spring shooting and the subject will no doubt cause lively arguments on both sides.

Milton Telephone Exchange.

S. A. Jones of Chicago of the firm of Jones and Winter, telephone exchange constructors, who put in the Rock county exchange in this city, has just completed the exchange at Milton and Milton Junction.

Sixty-one phones were in place when the line opened and many more have been ordered. Mr. Jones is in Milton at present and expects to have the plant accepted by the Telephone company today.

"HARRISON'S HOME TRIBUTE."

[BY JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY.]

Bowed, 'midst a universal grief that makes Columbia's self a stricken mourner, cast in tears beneath the old flag at half-mast, A sense of glory rouses us, and breaks Like song upon sorrowing, and shakes The dew up from our drenched eyes that smile at last In childish pride—as though the great man passed To his most high reward for our poor wakes. Loved of all men—we miss—yet ours he was— Choice of the Nation's mighty brotherhood— Her soldier, statesman, ruler—aye, but then, We knew him—long before the world's applause And after—as a neighbor, kind and good, Our common friend and fellow citizen.

NEW SERIES OF GOSPEL MEETINGS

A series of gospel meetings illustrated by truly beautiful stereoscopic art and brightened by good music is to be held in the Court Street M. E. church beginning next Sunday evening and extending through ten nights. Rev. W. B. Culliss has been induced to take up this work and those who have seen his work will be delighted. Mr. Culliss worked in conjunction with Moody in his great campaign in England. He exhibited his views thirty-one consecutive nights in the great Exeter hall in London. Gospel music and congregational singing will form a large part of the services. Mr. Len Mathews has kindly consented to take charge of a chorus choir. Singers are invited to join and help. Mr. Culliss comes to us with very high commendations from the pastors in whose churches he has labored. His methods are quiet but impressive. Veneration is not his stock in trade. These evangelistic services will all be free.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Thomas Q. Seabrooke must not be blamed because the big audience which filled the Myers last night did not get away until after 11 o'clock. Nor was it the fault of property men, or a slow chorus or excitable scene shifters, or anything else of that sort. The delay in the final dismissal was wholly due to the extreme cleverness of the "Rounders," and the good natured indulgence of Seabrooke in satisfying the insatiable appetite for encores. The audience simply would not let the play go on until Mr. Seabrooke, Will C. Manderville, Jeanette Lowrie, Jake Barnard and others of the capables had practically repeated their parts.

Viewed from the standpoint of the purist, the piece verges at times dangerously near the risqué. In less experienced or less talented hands it would scarcely have escaped vulgarity and it is safe to say that more than one in the audience last night was apprehensive of danger and that all were glad when it was found that their forebodings were not to be realized.

As to the play itself, while it is admirably and artistically constructed and while, as has already been said, it is deliciously funny there is in reality nothing about it that will appeal to the theatre goer as either strikingly new or startlingly original. There is the same old tenuous plot, the same "business," the same situations, the same characters—in a word and that taken from the piece itself, "The same old story; nothing new."

Pleasant to look upon, thoroughly enjoyable, and well calculated to clear the tired brain by bringing relief from the cares and perplexities of the humdrum life which the most of us lead, it certainly is. Nothing further can or need be claimed for it; and if it be true that the part the theatre and play have in the economy of nature, is to amuse and bring respite to throbbing brains and weary minds, then it must be voted a success.

Bertha Walzinger was missed from the play last night. Her place was taken by an understudy who did not shine in the role.

The interest engendered in the coming presentation of the dramatic sensation "Theodora" or "Her Last Race," with a mammoth organization of high class actors at the Myers Grand next week is becoming greater every day.

"Theodora is one of the great triumphs of the stage history. Every feature of the performance, and they are counted by the score, has elicited the highest praise.

The production of the play, it is said, will be in every way, magnificent and costly. There are six acts and nine tableaux, forming a grand pagentry of the beautiful and effective stage pictures.

The gown to be worn by Miss Darglish, who assumes the title role, are of much interest to the ladies; they are six in number and were purchased in Paris at a cost of $7,000. These handsome gowns are elaborately adorned by precious stones and a small fortune in gold thread. A diamond girdle which encircles the waist, is especially exquisite, as is the crown worn in the first act. The costumes for the entire company were designed and purchased abroad.

Originally written for Sarah Bernhardt by the great French author Sardou, she played it in French in this country about seventeen years ago, but seventeen years is a long time in theatrical history and those who saw the production at that time, are very few. To the most of us it will come as an entirely new production, for it is perhaps the least known of any drama from the great playwright. It is a production that admits of many spectacular effects outside those of costume and scenery and it is perfectly safe to assert that seldom, if ever, has a more elaborate production of a great play been seen upon a local stage.

For many years the name of Daniel Frohman has been a synonym for artistic success in the theatrical world, and deservedly so. All that ripe experience, sound judgment and liberal expenditure of money can accomplish is lavished without stint upon Mr. Frohman's productions. The Lyceum theatre, which has been the scene of so many New York triumphs sends us one of its greatest successes in Anthony Hope's romance, "Rupert of Hentzau," which will be scene here at an early date. A cast second to none will support that sterling young actor, Howard Gould, who appears in the dual role of Rudolf and the King, and the scenery, costumes, properties and accessories of the original Lyceum production will be used. It will play at the Myers next week.

Handled the "Man Killer."

James Hepburn of Galbraith barns went into the car with Alexander the Great at the C. & N. W. R. yards yesterday and patted him, and put his head up to the animal's without a remonstrance from the horse. It was witnessed by a dozen people and among them was Father Harlan of Edgerton. This terrible horse is said to be a man killer. It took four men to take him to the car for transportation at Juda. Mr. Hepburn claims that the horse is a mule in disposition and that any horseman of ordinary skill can handle him.

From the Ice Gorge.

Racine, Wis., March 15.—Residents of Horlick's Flats, a suburb of Racine, are becoming greatly alarmed over the possibility of an ice gorge forming in the Root river when the ice begins to go out. Ice in the river is thicker this spring than ever before. If a gorge forms at the railroad bridge, as now seems probable, it will back the water up and flood the entire Flats, which are only a foot higher than the river bed. Several years ago the Flats were flooded in this way and it was necessary to take the people from their houses in boats. The old hulk of the barge Mount Vernon lies on the river bottom just above the bridge, and it is thought this will also help the ice to lodge.

Prof. Mayne's defense of the Ether theory at the Twilight club, was not very ethereal; there were generous chunks of logical common sense.

UNEARTH A RELIC OF 50 YEARS AGO

A Paper Called the "Microcosm," Published in Janesville on Tues. day, April 15, 1851.

The Gazette has been furnished with a humorous specimen of Janesville journalism tinted yellow and creased with age. It is a four page, four column sheet, called "The Microcosm," dated Janesville, April 15, 1851. It has for its motto, "The world needs mending." The issue in question is Vol. 1, No. 1, and there is no reason for suspecting that it ever had a successor. There is no name attached as editor or publisher. The paper is full of local hits but only initials or nicknames are used and they fail to hit the mark after a period of fifty years. Some of the extracts follow:

"A middle aged man who don't drink, will find employment as Deputy Town Clerk, on making application to S. C. Clark, Town Clerk. N. E.—Jim Dimock and Chet Townsend needn't apply."

"Mr. Johnson Hayward, proprietor of the Grocery on the bridge, wishes to inform those worthy citizens who committed the burglary on his premises two weeks ago, that he has no particular objection to their retaining the drinks which they took on that occasion, if they will return the 'spondoolicks,' which they abstracted from the right hand pocket of his 'corduroys.'"

"Jack Hays, of the West Ward thinks his party services deserve party reward. So he means to be a candidate next time, for Chairman of the Board of Supervisors. The Kimps are in for him."

"We understand that our enterprising neighbors of the sprightly little village of Milwaukee, since the Peter Funks of New York taught their Flanders agent the difference between 'to seem and to be,' have determined to call out their own resources in pushing forward the railroad toward the great market town on Rock River. To this end they have procured a pair of feather breeches for George H. Walker, and are setting him on a basket of hen's eggs, with a prospect of hatching out something that can be made available. 'bird in the hand, &c.'"

"Charley Stevens is now in the saw log business, in the Jefferson woods. His protracted absence, amid the dangers of that howling wilderness, caused some alarm for a time, among his numerous friends and admirers, but news of his continued safety and health was received day before yesterday by a raft express. The only accident of any importance that has happened to him, since he left home, was the loss of the seat of his pantaloons, which occurred in consequence of his attempting to pull the pants off while he had his boots on."

"Bates is already canvassing for a re-election. Democrats to your posts! Be no longer deceived by the arts of this man! a crisis has come! the country is in danger! the stars and stripes are trailing in the dust. The eagle bird of Liberty is shrieking in her last agony. !!!"

"A lecture on Nosology will be delivered on Thursday evening next at Sol. Hutson's back room, by G. R. Woodworth, Esq. Front seats reserved for Jo Burgess, and all those having Roman's and Pugs."

WILL BE NO NEW DIVISION.

Milwaukee Road Officials Deny Any Intention to Create One.

Assistant Superintendent D. L. Bush of the Milwaukee road denies a report in the Sentinel this morning that a new division of the Milwaukee road is to be created with headquarters at Madison. Mr. Bush says he has heard nothing about any such proposition. It is believed the report originated with a change which will probably be made, fixing Madison as the end of a run for freight out of Chicago, over the new Janesville & Southeastern road. This road is not in so good a condition as the one by way of Milwaukee, but is somewhat shorter, and will probably be largely used for the transportation of cattle from the Northeast to Chicago. In this event Madison may be made the end of a run out of Chicago.

THE NEWS FROM COUNTY TOWNS

THE GAZETTE AGENCY.
W. W. CLARK, Manager
Milton, Wis., March 15, 1901.

At the meeting of the trustees of Milton college held Wednesday, a committee was appointed to solicit funds to pay the debt of the institution, which amounts to something over four thousand dollars. It is thought best to cancel the debt of the college before making any effort for its betterment in facilities for instruction or equipment in the way of building or apparatus. It is to be hoped that the friends of Milton college will contribute liberally when approached by the solicitors, and enable the trustees to extinguish the debt the present year. It now has sufficient endowment to pay running expenses, and with the debt paid, funds can be secured for enlarged and needed improvements.

At high noon Wednesday, March 14, Mrs. E. J. Randall, M. D., and Arthur H. Smart of Michigan City, N. D., were united in marriage at the home of the bride, Rev. Dr. Platts performing the ceremony. Only relatives were present, and at 5 o'clock the bride and groom took the train for Chicago, and after a brief visit they will go to their future home in North Dakota. The people of Milton will miss Dr. Randall-Smart very much, both as a physician and in social circles, but unite in wishing her self and husband a large measure of prosperity and happiness in their new home and relations.

Pan-American Exposition

Nothing since the World's Fair at Chicago in 1893 has elicited the wide spread interest that is manifest all over the world, in the Pan-American exposition, which is to be held in Buffalo from May 1 to November 1, 1901.

The purpose of the exposition is to illustrate the progress of the countries of the western hemisphere during a century of wonderful achievements and to bring together into closer relationship the people composing the many states, territories and countries of the three Americas. Acting under proper authority, the president of the United States has invited all the republics and colonies of the American hemisphere to join in commemorating the close of the nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth century, by holding this International exposition on the Niagara frontier.

For this important event the Nickel Plate road has issued an attractive descriptive folder pamphlet, elaborately illustrating the Pan-American Exposition, the buildings and grounds.

The Nickel Plate road is the short line between Chicago and Buffalo, and affords excellent train service from Chicago to Buffalo, New York City, Boston and all points east, with trains of modern equipment, on which no extra fares are charged; also dining car service of the highest order. It affords meals in its dining cars on the individual club plan ranging in price from 35 cents to $1.00.

Call on any ticket agent for Pan-American folder of the Nickel Plate road, or address John Y. Calahan, General agent, 111 Adams St., Chicago.

JANESVILLE PROSPERITY.
It looks very much as though prosperity was being thrust upon the city without any effort on the part of the citizens. The air is full of rumors concerning extensive railroad improvements, and there is no question but that the C. M. & St. P. company will spend money liberally during the summer.

For the first time in its history the city will be on the main line of this road. The through train to St. Paul will take the place of the "bob-tail" to Milton and Beloit, and the milk train to Milwaukee. People who take a train on the Milwaukee road from Janesville in future will have a right to feel that they are going somewhere. The event is worth as much to the city as the "Evansville Cut-off," and cost $50,000 less.

It means more than the saving of a bonus, because the company is spending plenty of money to accommodate the changed conditions, and Janesville is getting the benefit without lifting a finger.

Then the government has been good to us, and through Congressman Cooper drops $75,000 in our lap for a public building. "This also comes without expense. Mr. Carnegie, not wanting to be outdone, comes down with $30,000 more for a library building, and all this costs is a little sacrifice of pride, from which we will recover.

The city is simply being pushed ahead by outside forces. The canning factory is but one of a number of industries that are pointed this way, and if we, the citizens, show any spirit of appreciation and enterprise, the town may be transformed in a twelve month, to one of the busiest manufacturing centers in the state. It is in the air and the city can afford to rise to the occasion, and take advantage of conditions that seldom come to a city with so little effort.

One of the most important things to do first, is to clean house, and get ready to entertain general prosperity. This will require a good deal of sweeping and scrubbing, and perhaps the use of an axe now and then. No guilty man should be allowed to escape, and any one who shows a disposition to block the wheels should be brushed aside.

To thoroughly clean up and keep clean there are several things that ought to go into the sewer, like slot machines, corrupt practices, and various other vices that threaten the welfare of the city's good morals. The trouble is that we are long on this class of vices, but short on sewers. The city can't very well borrow a private sewer, and there is really nothing left but to build one. This should have been done long ago, and ought not to be longer delayed. The city can afford to make it an issue in the spring campaign, by electing no man to the council, who is not in favor of this much needed improvement, and who is not willing to assume responsibility in the matter if necessary.

If Janesville refuses to recognize and take advantage of the favorable conditions now presented, the city is guilty of gross neglect, and future generations will have occasion for just criticism. Better to bond the city for forty years, and let the future take care of the debt, than not to have the improvement so much needed.

The era of prosperity is here, and it is time to wake up to the fact, roll up our sleeves and go in. With a proper spirit of enterprise and appreciation it is possible to put Janesville to the front in five years so that the place would not be recognized, but for the old land marks. Let's do it.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.
In the death of ex-President Harrison the country has lost one of her great men. With an ancestry closely identified with the early history of the nation, he inherited Americanism of pronounced type, and he cultivated the inheritance faithfully. He belonged to the class of self made men, that have won their way to the front as great leaders. His early life was a life of toil and discipline, and his mature manhood was a monument of strength. He was tested at the bar of justice, and at the altar of patriotism, and never found wanting. When the nation honored him with the highest office within the gift of the people, he was equal to the responsibility, and his administration will live in the pages of history as one of the cleanest and most conservative of any on record. His name and his memory will continue to live, and the impress of his life will contribute to the welfare of the nation for many generations. He dropped out from the ranks of active workers, in the full vigor of manhood, and the place he occupied, will not be readily filled, because it was a large place in greatness and true ability. The nation will turn aside to revere his memory.

The announcement is made that Superintendent James E. Heg, of the Green Bay reformatory, will soon resign to accept a similar position at double the salary, in New Jersey. The state will lose a good man, for Mr. Heg is recognized as one of the best reformatory men in the country. He has been a close student of reform measures for a number of years. His work at Green Bay has been intelligent and progressive, and the state of New Jersey is very fortunate in being able to secure his services. His many friends in Wisconsin will wish him continued success.

An effort is being made by Milwaukee sportsmen to restore Muskego Lake. The lake is located about twelve miles from Milwaukee, and for many years was a favorite resort for hundreds of sportsmen. The farmers in the vicinity conceived the notion that they wanted the lake bottom, and so blew up the dam that held the water back at the outlet. It was repeatedly replaced and as repeatedly destroyed. The hunters now ask the state to appropriate $1,000 for a state dam on the plea that the rights of the state will be respected. The lake is now a marsh and was originally government water. The sportsmen's demands are reasonable and should be granted.

Chas. M. Schwab, the president of the new steel trust, is to receive $1,000,000 per year as salary; the largest ever paid in the business world. A few years ago Mr. Schwab was working for $2,000 per day, and his meteoric rise, seems due to his own ability as a manager and organizer, together with the opportunities offered in this country for men of ability. American industries are willing to pay handsomely for consummate skill in handling men and money, and they are thus able to lead the world in all lines of manufacture.

The state of Utah has disgraced itself by passing a polygamy bill, which only requires the signature of the governor to make it legal. Of course the Mormon church controls the state legislature. It looks very much as though nothing short of a hatchet brigade will ever rid the state of the curse. Carrie Nation had better go west, and postpone her trip to Milwaukee.

The Parents' Reception.
The parents' reception at the high school building tomorrow evening will commence at eight o'clock. It is not expected that the pupils will attend as the invitation which has been issued includes only parents of pupils in the high school and the eighth grades. The reception is to be held for the purpose of showing the parents the building and its appliances and while some of the work done by pupils will be where it can be seen if desired it will not be made a special feature of the exhibition. Members of the high school faculty will officiate as hosts and hostess and will explain their various departments.

Mrs. Katherine Moeser.
Mrs. Catherine Moeser died yesterday afternoon at five o'clock. Her death occurred at her home, 1 Benton avenue and was caused directly by an attack of pneumonia from which she had suffered for the past week. She was seventy-eight years of age and last autumn she broke one of her arms in a heavy fall. The injury to one of her legs was a severe shock and Mrs. Moeser never fully recovered. She had been in feeble health all winter.

M. J. Conroy.
The funeral services in memory of the late Michael J. Conroy were held from his late home on South Academy street this morning at nine o'clock and from St. Patrick's church at 9:30 o'clock. Large representations from Olive Branch lodge No. 36, A. O. U. W. and Laurel lodge No. 2, Degree of Honor of both of which the deceased was a member, were present as organizations.

PETER ALLER DEAD; AN EARLY SETTLER

PASSED AWAY AT HOME OF HIS SON NEAR OSHKOSH.

He Was Nearing His 84th Birthday—
Was a Staunch Republican, and
Had Held Many Official Positions—
Chairman of the County Board Ten
Years—Was Supt. Co. Poor Farm

Peter Aller, one of the early pioneers of Rock county passed onward into the unknown country from whose bourne no traveler ever returns last night at seven o'clock. His death occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Aller at Winnebago, Wis., near Oshkosh, with whom he had made his home for the past year. Had Mr. Aller lived until next Monday he would have celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday. For some time he had been in feeble health and his death was the result of no particular ailment—it was simply the gradual ebbing away of his physical strength.

Mr. Aller was born in New Jersey on March 18, 1817 and one year from his birth the family moved to Bedford county, Pa. Here he grew to manhood receiving the greater part of his education in the subscription schools and supplementing it with two years attendance at the district schools which were organized but a few years before he reached his majority.

In the spring of 1840 he left the parental roof and turned his face westward. After six months spent in farming in Southern Indiana he came to Rock county and located in Union township where he purchased 140 acres of government land and at once commenced its improvement.

March 28, 1841, he was united in marriage with Miss Eleanor Temple, the wedding ceremony being the first one celebrated in Union township. As there was no minister available the nuptial knot was tied by a Justice of the Peace. In 1860 Mrs. Aller died leaving two daughters.

Three years later Mr. Aller was married to Miss Nancy M. Smith, who has been his faithful helpmate through all the succeeding years and who still survives.

At this time Mr. Aller was a resident of Evansville in which town he resided for three years, being engaged in the drug business. In 1866 he returned to his farm for three years after which he again removed to Evansville and for a time lived a retired life.

During the vigor and activity of his life Mr. Aller held many official positions which he regarded as sacred trusts. Politically he was a staunch republican ever since the organization of the party and his active interest in the welfare of Rock County brought him into close association with many of its best citizens. Early in life he won the respect and the confidence of his fellow men and he never forfeited either.

In 1854 he was first elected chairman of the town board and at various times he served in that position for twenty years. In 1871 he was appointed a deputy sheriff a position in which he served for six years. In 1877 he was elected chairman of the county board of supervisors and he continued in the duties of this office for ten years.

The crowning position in this continuous life of public service was that of superintendent of the county poor farm. With this position Mr. Aller's name will ever be connected creditably. He entered upon the duties of the office on Jan. 1, 1877 and only laid them down when failing health required it one year ago. Since his retirement he and his wife have made their home with their son.

In his religious belief Mr. Aller was a consistent Congregationalist. His nature was generous and lovable and his entire life was ruled by his kindly thought and gentle consideration for other people. He was a noble, upright man, a courteous gentleman, one of those lofty souls of whose living the world is made better.

Besides his bereaved wife and son Arthur, deceased leaves one daughter by his first marriage. She resides at Lime Springs, Iowa. His remains will be taken to Evansville for interment at Evansville on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

IT IS HARD WORK TO FIND ACREAGE

Farmers Backward in Signing Contracts to Raise Produce for the Proposed Canning Factory

The canning factory promoters are having hard work in securing the acreage necessary to assure them that they will have produce enough raised by the farmers of the surrounding country to make their plant a success.

This is the one thing that they must have above all others to be able to operate the plant. They say that they are ready to put up the plant and have it ready for business the coming season. The plant would not be worth fifteen cents on a dollar to them if they could not get the acreage and before they do any building that they must have.

So far they have succeeded in securing but very few contracts. A great many farmers say that they will raise the truck but will not sign a contract. The farmer may be all right in his intentions but he may change his mind by spring and having nothing to bind him would not raise the truck.

Mr. Hohenadel said: "This is a business proposition and the farmer should look at it in that light. We have had a number of farmers take contracts who said that they would contract for a few acres to help the factory along. That is not the right way to look at the matter. It means money to the farmer, to raise the truck and if the factory is once built it will increase the value of land within eight miles of the city at least fifteen per cent and the rental value from one to three dollars per acre. We mean to start in the first of the week and make a vigorous canvass of the surrounding country. No doubt many of the farmers will see that it is a good thing after they have studied the matter and will make contracts, but our time is short and we must know where we stand before we invest our money."

Farmers should look upon this plant as a benefit to them and should do all that they can towards making it a success. They may not get quite as much for their truck as they would get for their tobacco but it does not cost one half as much to raise it as it does to raise and get tobacco ready for the market.

CLEMENTS ASSISTS IN GOOD CAPTURE

Counterfeiter Arrested in Minnesota Through Information from a Janesville Manufacturer of Seals.

A report from La Crosse says that United States Deputy Marshall Lovering made an important catch in Fillmore county, Minn., yesterday. A number of counterfeit coins have made their appearance in that vicinity recently, and yesterday Emilie Sandlie of Arendahl, a Norwegian about twenty-five years of age, was arrested, charged with the crime.

A complete set of counterfeiters' tools was found in his possession as well as some of the purloined coins.

The capture of this man came about in a peculiar manner and the investigation that led to his arrest first started in this city. About three weeks ago H. F. Clement of 4 South Division street, a manufacturer of seals and rubber stamps received a letter from Sandlie asking him if he could make him a stamp and inclosed him a piece of a ten dollar bill as a pattern. Clement thought that something was wrong and took the letter to Sheriff Maltress who told him to write to Sandlie and tell him that he could. Mr. Clement did as directed and in a short time received another letter from Sandlie asking if he could furnish him with a die to make fifty cent pieces. He told him that he could and kept up the correspondence.

In the meantime United States District Attorney W. G. Wheeler was informed of the matter and wrote to United States Marshall Stevens at St. Paul informing him of the letters and of the name and address of the writer. Marshall Stevens wrote Wheeler to keep up the game and that he would be down in a day or two.

On Tuesday last Marshall Stevens arrived in town and secured the letters and other evidence against Sandlie and left for home to arrest him. He evidently had other business to attend to or else his deputy found the man first as the arrest was made by Deputy Marshall Lovering.

It was a good capture and Mr. Clement should have the credit of putting the officers on the right track, and in case any reward is offered by the government for the capture to get a good sized piece of it.

To Continue Rummage Sale.
The Woman's auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will continue the rummage sale beginning Thursday of next week. HE HAS VALUABLE SPECIMENS

Anthony Dixon Returns Home From Missouri With Good News.

Anthony Dixon is home from Tany county, Missouri, bringing with him valuable mineral specimens taken from a farm owned by him. This farm comprises 357 acres. It is located in south-west Missouri, and is on the direct line of a recently surveyed railroad. The minerals brought home by Mr. Dixon are lead, zinc and copper, and each specimen shows much richness. Mr. Dixon intends to interest local capital if possible, his desire being to return and work his property. But a few miles from Mr. Dixon's land mining is carried on with great profit. At The Gazette office the mineral specimens may be seen. Those interested should lose no time in seeing Mr. Dixon.

BRIDE AND GROOM BOTH UNDER AGE

Miss Nettie L. Wilson and Edward Frazier Married Under a Special Permit from Court.

Miss Nettie L. Wilson and Edward Frazier, both of this city were quietly married last evening at the Congregational church parsonage. Rev. R. C. Denison sanctified the exchange of marriage vows and the bride's parents accompanied the happy couple and witnessed their nuptial contract.

Both bride and groom were under age and were married under the authority of a special court permit and license. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilson, who keep a boarding house on Park street and who formerly resided in Aurora.

The groom is twenty years of age and recently came here from Kentucky. Before he could obtain the marriage license it was necessary for him to secure the official consent of his guardian who also resides in Kentucky.

Since his residence here the young groom has boarded at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and although he and his bride have been acquainted since Christmas, their mutual attachment ripened rapidly under the influence of daily companionship.

The young people were very quiet concerning their approaching wedding and it seems evident that they wished to keep it as much of a secret as possible. Their most intimate friends knew nothing of the arrangements and the announcement of the marriage will be a surprise to many. Mr. and Mrs. Frazier took no wedding journey. They will have the best wishes of their friends.

A Successful Operation.

Vernon Bartlett of Brodhead was operated on successfully at the Palmer memorial hospital by Dr. J. P. Thorne Wednesday. A few days ago while young Bartlett with several boy companions were playing one of the youngsters threw a frozen corn cob at Bartlett who had poked his head out from a corner of a building and caught him in the eye. The blow broke the iris which protruded through the rupture. He was brought to this city at once and Dr. Thorne trimmed off the membrane and outside of an irregular shaped pupil hopes to bring the young man through safely.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

Some Common Sense on Health Well Worth Reading.

That is what Quaker Tonic is and what it does.

It was originally intended for diseases of the liver and kidneys, and constipation, but experience has proved it to be of transcendent merit as a purifier of the blood, a strengthener of debilitated nerves and a tonic for every organ and function of the body.

It is the most comprehensive remedy known to the science of medicine.

Here are a few facts of vital interest to those who suffer from any disease due to the liver. Read them carefully.

The liver is one of the most important of vital organs. It separates the pure, healthy blood from the injurious matter. The latter it carries to the intestines in the form of what is known as bile. The moment your liver is overworked, sluggish or disordered, it fails to carry the bile to the intestines—becomes filled with it—and overflows. Then this rank, poisonous matter, which it is the function of the liver to get rid of, is absorbed, carried through the main thoracic duct and thence along the spinal column, where it is diffused in the blood.

That is how your blood gets out of order.

And there is one more evil result of this condition.

The bile is nature's own purgative.

When the liver fails to carry the bile into the intestines constipation is the immediate result. The thing works both ways. Billiousness causes constipation—constipation in its turn causes billiousness. Now what do you do when you are billious or constipated? Unless you are very much out of the ordinary, you follow that old and foolish custom of taking a strong purgative, and you think when that purgative has done its duty you are necessarily all right again. On the contrary, you are right in the straight path of being all wrong again in a very short time.

Violent purgatives, such as "liver pills," strong herb teas and modern cathartics, overstimulate and unduly excite the liver. They irritate the stomach and bowels and derange the digestive organs and functions.

Leaving the liver, as they do, in a "torpid" condition, pure purgatives are unable to do its work properly and you are right in line once more for billiousness and constipation—worse than before and sooner than before.

And so you go on whipping the devil of an insidious and dangerous disease around the stomach in this senseless manner until your whole digestive apparatus is not only a complete wreck, but dangerous and even fatal diseases of the liver, kidneys and heart have got you securely in their grip.

What you really need is this certain, reliable and harmless medicine—Dr. Crane's Quaker Tonic Tablets.

You can buy them at any drug store. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes $2.50. If your druggist doesn't sell them write to Penn Drug Co., Oshkosh, Wis., for free sample and booklet, "Quaker Tonic Truths."

Roosters often crow over eggs they did not lay. Same with people who sell an imitation. Rocky Mountain Tea, made famous by the Madison Medicine Co's advertising. 35c. Sold at Smith's pharmacy, Kodak agents, next to postoffice.

At Cincinnati, Ohio, March 15.—Senator W. C. Gear of Upper Sandusky, who is prominent in state politics, has received the third letter demanding $500. Threats of burning his home and way-laying one of his daughters and burning out her eyes are made should he fail to comply. Detectives have been employed on the case.

France to begin construction of thirty-six new warships.

Buffet-Beroulette duel to be fought in Switzerland.

Liabilities May Be $50,000. Fort Scott, Kan., March 15.—Supreme officers of the Order of Select Friends, the fraternal insurance society that has been declared insolvent, place the liabilities at $16,000, but many connected with the order assert that it has unpaid claims of $50,000, and perhaps more. The loss will fall principally upon the older policy holders. The younger members will have no trouble securing admission to other orders and will lose practically nothing but the former, besides losing all they have paid in, will be barred by age from joining any other order.

Slain in Denver Saloon. Denver, March 15.—Jimmy Coogan, a local light weight pugilist, was shot through the head and instantly killed by Frank Salter, better known as "Plunk" Salter, in a saloon at Nineteenth and Market streets. According to witnesses Coogan first shot at Salter, declaring the latter had slandered him. Salter is under bond on charge of conspiring with J. E. Wannemaker to assassinate the latter's son-in-law, ex-Senator D. C. Webber.

Bryan at the Capital. Washington, March 15.—Col. Bryan's visit to the capital, although a very brief one, was exceedingly pleasant. In the afternoon quite a number of the Colonel's friends assembled in the Pennsylvania Railroad station to bid him good-by. Mr. Bryan avoided every question concerning the political outlook for 1904.

Suicide Identified. New York, March 15.—The man who about two weeks ago committed suicide in a Belfast (Ireland) hotel by shooting himself, has been identified, by a photograph and description furnished to Captain Titus of the detective bureau by the Belfast police, as Colonel James

KILLED BY BANK ROBBERS

Cashier Is Murdered in a National Bank.

MURDERERS ARE CAPTURED.

Charles W. Ryan of National Bank of Halifax, in Pennsylvania, Robbed of $2,000 by Two Young Men—Bandits Narrowly Escape Lynching.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 15.—Charles W. Ryan, cashier of the National bank of Halifax, was shot by a bank robber and died three hours later. Ryan was in the bank shortly after 11 o'clock when two men entered and demanded that he hand over all the money in the drawer. One of the men sprang over the guard rail, with a revolver in each hand, and threatened to shoot the cashier unless he quickly gave up the funds of the bank. Meanwhile the second robber entered the inclosure through the gateway, and snatching the money, started to run out of the bank. He had about $2,000 in bills. Cashier Ryan started after him, when the first robber fired, the bullet entering the cashier's groin and inflicting a fatal wound. The robber with the cash reached the street door, and as he emerged from the bank was halted by a load of shot from a gun in the hands of Joseph Lyter, the proprietor of a store adjoining the bank, who had heard the shooting and surmised what was going on in the bank. Several citizens made a rush for the bank and overpowered both robbers, who are Weston Kelper and Henry Rowe, two young miners of Lykens, Abram Fortenbaugh, the president of the bank, and Isaac Lyter, the teller, grappled with the robber who had shot Ryan. This man continued to fire his revolver until his ammunition was exhausted. Many of the citizens rushed to the bank, armed with all manner of guns, and there were threats of lynching when the men were taken into custody. The cashier was removed to his home, but not until he identified Kelper as the man who had shot him. Kelper says he shot toward the ceiling and with no intention to hit anybody. Two other men were waiting with a carriage near the bank to get away with the plunder. County Detective Walters ordered the arrest late in the afternoon of "Sikes" Shover, who was with the two men when they hired a carriage at Elizabethtown this morning for the purpose of going to Halifax. It is evident from all circumstances that the robbery was carefully planned, but the robbers miscalculated the time, and found more persons at the bank than they anticipated.

West Point Chair Refused. Washington, March 15.—Captain William Crozier of the Ordnance Department, who recently was appointed professor at the military academy, to succeed the late Professor Peter C. Michie, has declined the appointment, much to the surprise of army officers. His refusal is not accompanied by an explanation. Crozier represented this government with Captain Mahan, of the navy, at The Hague peace conference, and was consulted by Secretary Root in army reorganization.

Eats Thirty Ham Sandwiches. Scranton, Pa., March 15.—Dan C. Tello, on a wager of $5, accomplished feat in the eating line that is the talk of the town today. He consumed one sitting thirty ham sandwiches, seven cups of coffee and two custard pies.
